Buildings. Torreon, Mex., July 4 .- Toreron will bublic school system arranged on the hauled and ready for use for traffic same principle as in the United States, to the outlying mining districts. as far as sex and general line of studies are concerned High school officials state the plan will first be tried in the $35,000, to be ready for use by the new Central school, which is to be established by enterprising bitizens in commemoration of the centennial year.

The cornerstone of this new school bas been laid and construction work is well advanced. Every effort will be made to have it completed and inaugurated durng the celebration next September. In this school the boys and girls will study together in the same rooms, and it is very likely that this rule will shortly be applied to all of the schools in this city, which, is contrary to the custom in Mexico, where the boys and girls have been taught in entirely sep-

Aside from the building of this school number of public spirited citizens have arranged to build schoolhouses in the suburbs of the city. In this they are following out the desire of president Diaz and other high government officials, who have made it public that their greatest wish is that the centennial year may be marked with the in-auguration of many places of learning. Francisco Larriva and Mauro de la Pena have notified the municipal authorities that they and others will build new schoolhouse for boys and girls near La Fe clothing factory, to accommodate 400 pupils. Engineer Felicito Villareal, manager of the Torreon smelter, anounces that he will build a modern school building for the benefit of the children whose parents are em-ployed at the smelter. The Continental-

Mexican Rubber company has just com pleted its new school building, which to be donated to the city. Many other schools are projected for this vicinity, which, taken together with those already established, will make Torreon one of the principal seats of learning in Mexico.
